

Girraween National Park - Crossword 3

Constructed by Vanessa Ryan

Across

- 1 Another name for a goanna.
- 4 When magma does this, it becomes granite.
- 8 Common flowering shrub.
- 11 I lay eggs, but I'm not a bird.
- 12 Carnivorous marsupial.
- 13 Granite boulder.
- 15 A small bird.
- 17 Girraween Guardian.
- 18 Insect.
- 19 A colourful wildflower.
- 21 Flannel Flowers are this.
- 22 Mt Norman's ___ of the Needle.
- 24 I'm not as big as a Wedge-tailed Eagle.
- 25 We're cute and fluffy, but we don't belong here.
- 27 The Sphinx is one of these.
- 30 A pretty tree or a beverage.
- 31 I can be friend or foe.
- 33 A crumbling ruin, the Stone _____.
- 35 A key factor in the making of Girraween's spectacular landscape.
- 36 I be a dragon!
- 37 Girraween is a great place for eating outdoors.
- 38 Something you can pitch in the park.
- 39 Granite slab or _____.

Down

- 1 The White-winged Chough builds its nest from this.
- 2 Rangers use this to catch introduced fish.
- 3 The native water ___ is rarely seen.
- 4 Water course.
- 5 Grown in Girraween many years ago.
- 6 Animal eating plant.
- 7 One of five key minerals that make up granite.
- 8 I hop, but I'm not a kangaroo.
- 9 How many Pyramids are there in the park?
- 10 Girraween is situated on the border of NSW and ?
- 13 You'll need to ___ up in Winter!
- 14 I'm the only python in the park.
- 16 Many animals and plants more than want protection.
- 20 Dykes are made of this.
- 21 Dr Roberts' and Bill Goebel's ...
- 23 Please ___ fire with care.
- 26 We're a waterbird, Black and Little.
- 28 Some creatures do this to survive.
- 29 ___'s Turtle, was once thought to be a different species.
- 31 Jack _____ is a frequent Winter visitor to Girraween.
- 32 After hiking, you might want to give your feet one of these.
- 34 When out in the bush, - - - -, look and listen. You might be surprised by what you find.